Beautiful four bedroom home in sought after security estate

Rondebosch Oval is an exclusive residential estate situated on a 12 acre property in the heart of the leafy suburb of Rondebosch, with views towards Table Mountain. This desirable new estate has 41 upmarket homes Situated conveniently close to parks, shops, sports facilities and schools, with easy access to surrounding suburbs as well as Cape Town's City Centre. Rondebosch is a highly sought after neighbourhood and the perfect place for your family to flourish. The estate grounds are home to the Rondebosch Cricket Club oval and bowling green. The new homes are positioned to overlook these green spaces while also enjoying spectacular views of Table Mountain. The architectural design is a contemporary take on traditional terraced townhouse with large windows, timber cladding, generous balconies and courtyard gardens. Don't miss out on your opportunity to own a home in this beautiful estate. First phase is complete with the construction of the second phase underway. The estate club house is complete with the Daily Grind restaurant serving delicious meals. We have a show house built and viewings can be done by appointment.
